

Dielectric constant and electric susceptibility of a polar dielectric are inversely proportional to the absolute temperature T . Non-polar dielectrics have no such temperature dependence.