

Answer on Question #73290 – Math – Statistics and Probability

Question

Use the following information to answer the next 2 questions:

A realtor's website provides information on area homes that are for sale.

1. Identify the variable as either categorical or quantitative:

List price (amount, in thousands of dollars for which the house is being sold)

Solution

Quantitative

Question

2. Identify the variable as either categorical or quantitative: School district (the school district in which the home is located)

Solution

Categorical

Question

3. What are the cases in the realtor's dataset?

Solution

Individual houses